Whereabouts Strictly Considered By War Departm't

AT WASHINGTON TOMORROW

(By United Press.)
Washington, April 24.—The French Commission coming here for a conference with American and English government officials has arrived safely. The place of arrival is withheld. The State Department issued the following statement: "The department is advised of the safe arrival of the French Commission." The party is not yet in Washington and all information as to their movements or the time of their arrival has not been allowed to get past the censor. Ex-Premier Viviani and General Joffre are members of the French commission.

Third Assistant Secretary of State Long, Col. Crosby, Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt and Admiral Hunt are greeting the French commission. The commission will reach Washington tomorrow morning. The time and place of arrival will be announced later.

CLARK OPPOSES CONSCRIPTION

Washington, April 24.—Representative Clark is bitterly opposed to the conscription army system as against the volunteer system, he declared to delegates of the National Security league. "I will never vote for such a plan" said Clark. "Such a bill will never pass. The best army we ever had was a volunteer army."

FIGHT TO MAKE RED WING DRY

Red Wing, Minn., April 24.—A persistent fight to put Red Wing dry is being made today, in a municipal election on the liquor question. Several previous votes on the subject have been taken.

Eton Boys Of England Will Get
An Unnecessary Vacation

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
London, April 24.—The English public school boys are doing their little for England today.

Eton and Harrow, England's two great public schools, have given up "tuck shops" and creases until after the war.

The boys of Harrow decided on their own initiative not to buy any more putty or candy at the tuck shops and not to have their trousers pressed while the war lasts. The boys at Eton had measures similarly restricting their gastronomies and their nether garments thrust upon them.

Bread, meat and sugar, the A B C's of the food controller's thou shalt nots are included in the sweeping ordinance the youngsters of Harrow imposed upon themselves. They have agreed not to buy any article of food containing these three substances except during the regular hours for meals, and then to stay within the suggested limits each week. As for their tailors they're going to cut them out after the war. The good old "under the mattress" hiding place will have to do the trick to keep the young Harrowians from looking as though they were ready to jump.

The Eton boys neglected to adopt similar measures in time and the teachers did it for them. Besides imposing strict regulations for young Etonians' flogging the faculty has

Fourth Ward Murderer
May Not Be SuicideBartoli Aveni Expected to Recover
From His Wounds

Bartoli Aveni, the demented Italian who attempted suicide by shooting himself in the head after killing his cousin, Sam Cadile, in the East End yesterday at noon, passed a fairly comfortable night at the Clearfield hospital and appears to be getting along alright today.

The bullet which Aveni shot into his head entered under the chin and tore through his mouth, knocking out several teeth and passing up back of the nose lodged near the left eye. The wound is not necessarily fatal unless complications arise.

County Coroner Dr. J. I. Pollum, of DuBois, arrived in town yesterday afternoon and empaneled a jury consisting of: T. A. Kramer, G. J. Johnson, Sam Toney, J. R. Chase, W. J. Leavy and John Eadie.

They repaired to the scene of the shooting and after examining the remains returned a verdict in accordance with the facts surrounding the shooting.

Following the inquest Cadile's body was removed to Leavy's undertaking establishment and prepared for burial. It was found that the bullet after entering the body had taken a downward course, which would tend to show that the murderer was above his victim when the fatal shot was fired, which would also indicate that the man was shot while coming up the stairs. The dead man's nose and jaw were broken, his forehead badly cut and the blood spots in the bed room and at the head of the stairs also give rise to the belief that the shooting was done upstairs and that the murderer also beat up his victim after shooting him.

Cadile's funeral will be held from the Catholic church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, with interment in Calvary cemetery.

ACCIDENT VICTIM IMPROVING

Little Joe Natore, the East End lad who was struck by the automobile in which District Attorney Welch was being driven to the scene of yesterday's shooting affray, was very little worse for wear this morning, although his bruised side and hip were pretty sore.

Little Natore owes his life to his presence of mind in grasping the bumper of the machine when it struck him, and hanging on like grim death. The accident was unavoidable as the little fellow rushed out from behind a coal wagon right in front of the oncoming machine, and had he failed to hang on when struck would undoubtedly have been killed, as Mr. Welch's driver never saw the boy until he stepped right in front of the machine.

John E. Jannot, of Meadville, Mrs. J. D. Rollin, of Cleveland, Ohio and Mrs. J. C. Daugherty of Turpike avenue, have been called to Surveyor on account of the serious illness of their sister, Mrs. Annie Rougeaux.

Is a Red Marine Corps Poster on Your House?

The red Marine Corps poster announcing that one from a house has enlisted in the service has become conspicuous in many cities, and the people who live in these houses are proud of them. Here are two posters published by the Marine Corps and a photograph of one of their men fully equipped for action.

Mrs. William S. Heinen, Nee Alice Norris, Home Talent Star at Milton

The following highly complimentary notice of a former talented young woman of Clearfield, Mrs. William S. Heinen, nee Alice Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Norris of South Second street, we take from one of our exchanges. "The Milton Evening Standard." Mrs. Heinen is a vocalist of more than ordinary ability and her host of Clearfield friends will be pleased to read of her success at her home in Milton. The extract follows:

"Ballad," a comic operetta produced by the Fortnightly Guild, made its initial appearance at the Family theatre Thursday, and was one of the best home talent plays ever given in this city. From the beginning to the end everything went along smoothly and every one of the several hundred people who witnessed it was surprised at the ease with which all the principals and chorus went through their parts. Another crowded house again witnessed the play last night.

Mrs. William S. Heinen as Ballad, the princess, won the hearts of the audience from the moment she stepped on the stage and in many of the love scenes, she made a very pretty appearance. Her solos were exceptionally fine, especially "Love is a Flower" and the ballad, "Crown, Silver Moon" which brought several encores. In her duet with Walter Evans of Sanbury, who took the part of the prince-lover, the audience was delighted with the sweet blending of their voices and these also brought forth great applause from everyone."

BRITONS TO OBSERVE "ANZAC DAY"

London, April 24.—"Anzac Day" commemorating the anniversary of the landing of the Australians and New Zealand army corps on Gallipoli peninsula for the unsuccessful attempt to capture the Dardanelles, is to be celebrated tomorrow in every nook and corner of the British empire. In London the official celebration is to take the form of a special service at Westminster Abbey, to be attended by the King and Queen, high officials of the government and representatives of the army and navy.

Dispatches from Canada and South Africa indicate that the day will be celebrated generally by memorial and patriotic services. In Australia and New Zealand the day has been officially designated as a special day of mourning.

It is expected that in the parts of the empire "Anzac Day" will be a day of mourning and that the British and Commonwealth troops will be in mourning. The day will be a day of mourning and that the British and Commonwealth troops will be in mourning.

Mrs. David Campbell, of Clearfield, is spending the day at the home of Lee R. Watson.

Old Time Lumberman
Visiting Clearfield

James Wesley Childs, a Clearfielder in 1818, Visiting Friends

James Wesley Childs, of Waverly, N. Y., arrived in town last evening for a visit with relatives for a few days. There would not be anything remarkable in the above statement were it not for the fact that the venerable gentleman mentioned has started in on the 88th lap of his life's journey.

Mr. Childs is a former Clearfield resident, coming here in 1848 from his home in Ticonderoga, New York. He was one of the pioneer lumbermen of this section and remained here for a number of years. He was acquainted with all the old timers and in a short conversation with The Progress man recalled many of the familiar names of before the war times.

Mr. Childs married Miss Elizabeth Irwin, sister of Mrs. E. C. Johnson, and R. E. Irwin of this place, in 1854 and took his bride to his old home on a honeymoon trip, making the entire journey overland by stage, traveling by way of Tyrone, Bellefonte, Lock Haven and Williamsport. Mr. Childs is hale and hearty for a man of his years and no more feared the rigorous journey from his home to Clearfield than he did the stage coach journey of more than three score years ago. He expects to meet the few old friends yet remaining during his stay here.

BIG BUSINESS MEN IN FAVOR

If the action of the Democratic caucus meeting war prohibition threw the liquor interests into consternation, as the report goes, it also brought to the prohibition ranks a large number of prominent and influential men who are in favor of the dry policy during the war on strictly business and economic grounds.

"I am firmly convinced," said F. A. Vanderlip of the National City Bank, New York, "that a national prohibition measure would be of transcendent importance in its effect upon national spirit, conserving and increasing our food supply, releasing labor for other productive channels when the need is acute. The plants could be quickly turned to industrial uses for which the need is so pressing."

Howard Elliott, president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad said, "Prohibition during the war would help meet the food crisis, promote health and efficiency, and economy would be very great."

David R. Forgan, president of the National City Bank of Chicago, "Prohibition during the war would help meet the food crisis, promote health and efficiency, and economy would be very great."

Governor Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania: "Absolute for war prohibition. Conditions demand it."

Governor Alexander of Idaho: "Experience demonstrates prohibition one of the greatest economic measures. Am very much for it."

Governor Bilbo, of Mississippi: "The crisis of war demands every man at his best. I am for national war prohibition."

Governor Capper of Kansas: "Prohibition demands it."

Governor Harris of Georgia, has called a conference of all governors to meet in the city of Washington May 4th to consider what action the states should take to meet the food crisis, and fortify for the strain that war will impose on all their resources.

GUARDS KEPT BUSY

The job of guarding that R. R. & P. railroad bridge below town is getting to be rather a strenuous operation, judging from the tales emanating from that vicinity. The night crew appears to have a big time driving marauders away from the bridge while it appears that the day men have a big time to keep from being driven away themselves.

Last evening E. T. Pooler, one of the day guards, made information before Squire Milligan in which he asserts that a West Side citizen with whom he had a discussion on the bridge met him on the street and swatted him in the eye. The young man will be asked to defend himself in an assault and battery case.

ALABAMA SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS

Montgomery, Ala., April 24.—An army of earnest young religious workers rallied here today for the opening of the thirty-fourth annual convention of the Alabama Sunday school association. In attendance and enthusiasm the convention this year bids fair to eclipse all of its predecessors.

A leading feature of the three-day session will be a course of lectures by E. E. French of Nashville, president of the Tennessee Sunday school association and superintendent of the department of Sunday school supplies of the Methodist Episcopal church, south. The musical portions of the program will be charge of Prof. E. O. Howell of Louisville.

Shows The Proper
American SpiritH. B. Swoope, Modern Coal Man, Will Assist The Government

H. B. Swoope, of Madera, with extensive coal interests in that vicinity, and who also operates the Monarch shaft, near Philipsburg, gives evidence of a true spirit of patriotism by the following announcement which appeared in the Madera Hustler of April 20th:

ANNOUNCEMENT

Our Government, representing the majority, has decided at this important time to throw our moral, financial, military and naval strength on the side they evidently think will mean for the betterment of the world and a lasting peace.

I have written the Navy Department, offering a cargo of coal from my Mines each month.

I wish to announce that any of my employees coming within the age limits fixed or to be fixed, who may feel it their duty to enlist for active service, hereby have my promise:

First. That they shall have a return as good a job at least as they left.

Second. That if any dependants they may leave shall need help while they are absent, I will personally see that they get it, or if the age limits and requirements are changed and I am needed later myself I will arrange accordingly.

Our country is the best on the face of the earth, and the right of the principle of our FLAG stands for a successful success, so that no matter what differences of opinion as to details or policies, there is but one course open to us all when it comes to a question of whether we shall stand for our Country or whether we shall not. That course is "STAND!"

H. B. SWOOPE.

April 10, 1917.

While it is true that all cannot carry out such a proposition as is made by Mr. Swoope, yet his example can be emulated by the humblest citizen in some measure at least. Mr. Swoope is to be commended for his pure and swerving patriotic spirit.

BISHOP LAWRENCE HONORED

Boston, Mass., April 24.—Leaders of the Episcopal church from all parts of New England attended a reception given at the Copley-Plaza hotel this afternoon in honor of Bishop Lawrence and in recognition of his work in creating the $5,000,000 pension fund for Episcopal clergy. The reception followed an impressive thanksgiving service in Trinity church.

GERMAN ASSAULTS REPULSED

(By United Press.)
Paris, April 24.—General Nivelle's troops are holding the position won from the enemy in last week's great offensive movement despite the German counter attacks, the official statement declared today detailing a number of German assaults all of which were repulsed.

London, April 24.—Sumarra station was captured from the Turks by the British forces early yesterday. The capture included 16 locomotives, 224 railroad wagons, and two barges containing munitions. The enemy casualties were heavy. Sumarra is 65 miles northwest of Baghdad and is situated on the Tigris river.

London, April 24.—General Haig's forces gained more ground in the second British offensive. "We made further progress east of Monchy le Preux and Rœux and to the north of Baupreux. Chantreaux. We gained ground on a wide front east of Epuy and St. Quentin channel.

"The war was severe fighting at intervals during the night," Haig's report declared. "The villages of Coudun and Gouville were taken. The enemy counter attacks were unsuccessful. Positions gained yesterday were maintained. Fifteen thousand prisoners including 30 officers were taken and many more are being taken today."

Lord Cunliffe, Our Noted Guest,
Little Known Outside London

London, April 24.—In the City of London he is known as "The Kitchen of Finance." Outside the city, Lord Cunliffe is now in his sixty-fourth year. Son of a hard-headed Manchester business man who left a fortune of several million dollars, he spent the days of his boyhood and youth at "Larrow and Cumbria" where he distinguished himself both in war and play alike. He has, in fact, always been a very keen athlete and sportsman, his great passion of late years being the fishing and big-game shooting. In the pursuit of this sport he has covered the wilds of both India and China.

After leaving college he entered upon his business career as a member of the "workhouse firm of Cunliffe, Threlkeld and Street. In the first days of the war, it will be remembered, England was threatened with a financial chaos, and was, in consequence, made a peer, being, in fact, the first man to have a peerage conferred upon him for service in the present war.

Lord Cunliffe's services to the nation were rendered in connection with his official position as governor of the Bank of England—the Old Lady of Threadneedle street. In the first days of the war, it will be remembered, England was threatened with a financial chaos, and was, in consequence, made a peer, being, in fact, the first man to have a peerage conferred upon him for service in the present war.

Then it was that Walter Cunliffe, as he was known, came to the aid of the government. The financial system of the country was reorganized under their direction. The money of the country was put on that basis it was not only carried on, but it was a success.

"Work is the best of all hobbies," is one of his favorite maxims, and he is to be found at his office at the Bank of England nearly every day of the week.

Shall we use our grain for booze or bread?

Autoists must not take too much pleasure out of the announcement that the Standard Oil company is to be prosecuted for cornering the gasoline market and forcing up prices to the present level. News dispatches say that all the evidence is to be handed over to the Attorney General but whether he will put them in his hip pocket and forget them remains to be seen. Newspaper men were overjoyed when a commission said what they were going to do to the high cost of print paper but so far newspaper men have seen no relief.

THE GLEANERS

With every era of prosperity there comes the hordes of stock promoters and those who seek to set the world afire on their proposition with your money and my money. All we suckers remember how we bit on blue sky proposals during a period of prosperity about the time of the Spanish War. And again we have memories of another period of prosperity in 1905 when a glib salesman could sell anything that looked like a stock certificate. We are going through the same period again and corpulent, prosperous looking gentlemen are keeping printing offices busy turning out the fancy looking, embossed certificates that are so familiar to all of us. This is fishing season in more than one sense of the word. A pointed hook is encased in the choicest of bait.

THIS COUNTY SLIGHTED

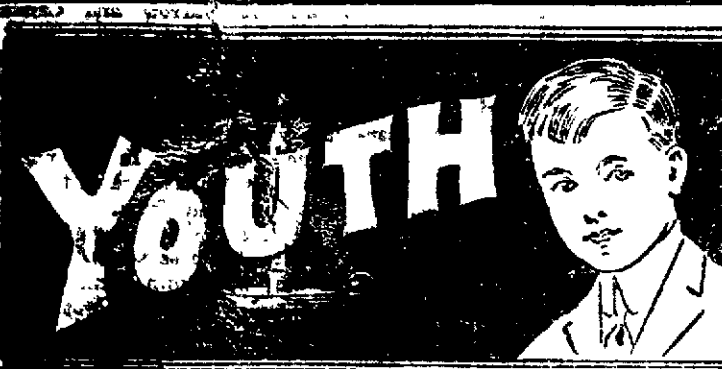

Clearfield Countians have looked in vain for some representation on the State Committee on Public Safety. Thus far of the more than three hundred members appointed on the committee only one has been from this county and in the person of George A. Lakehart, who though capable and able to serve cannot be said to represent the county at large because his residence is at DuBois which is on the outskirts of the county. Smaller counties in the Commonwealth have been given better representation and every one is at loss to know why the Governor has not seen fit to honor at least one of the big men of the city of Clearfield. Some are frank in their belief that it is political, because the Governor did not carry Clearfield county, but we are loath to believe that politics are to be injected in a matter of so great import and we would rather take the view that the Governor has simply overlooked the matter of giving this county their proper representation and that in the near future we will be better represented on this all important committee. The city of Clearfield has many citizens whose abilities fit them to serve their commonwealth in this capacity and representatives of our great brick making and coal industries should not receive this treatment even at the hands of our Chief Executive.

A blend of mirth and sadness smiles and tears
A quaint knight-errant of the pioneers;
A homely hero, born of star and sod;
A peasant prince; a masterpiece of God.
—WALTER MALONE

PERSONS REPRESENTED IN THE PLAY

Silas Whipple Mr. George Fawcett
Known as Judge Whipple. A disciple of Lincoln and a bitter foe of the system of slavery—the bartering of human souls, as tho' they were cattle.
Comyn Carvel Mr. Matthew Snyder
Known as Colonel Carvel. A heart as big as all outdoors, but none the less convinced that the Lord created some to rule, others to serve.
Known as "Jimmy." As fair a rose of Dixie Land as man e'er set eyes upon; and as proud, loyal and brave as she is fair.
Stephen Brice Mr. Thomas Santschi
Of New England. Firm of Puritan purpose, unafraid of his convictions, generous, tolerant and respected of all men.
Mrs. Brice Miss Eugenia Bresser
Mother of Stephen Brice. Sorrow had sweetened her; adversity had strengthened her; and the two had left upon her face an appearance of indescribable saintliness.
Clarence Colfax Mr. Marshall Neilan
Nephew to Colonel Carvel, and cousin to Virginia, with whom he is very much in love. A beloved vagabond in the practical affairs of life, but none the less chivalrous and brave.
Lige Brent Mr. Frank Weed
Known as "the Mole." Poverty had hardened him; Hunger had made him so unscrupulous that he bit the hand that fed him.
A steamboat captain. Master of a type of mighty craft that plowed the Mississippi a half century ago.
Abraham Lincoln Mr. Samuel Drane
A man of sorrow, likewise a man of infinite humor. In his expressive eyes were mirrored the Soul of a War-Torn Nation.
Major-General in the Armies of the United States. A restless spirit that never gave up. His motto was "War is Hell."
Union and Confederate officers and soldiers; slaves, militiamen and artillerymen; northern and southern statesmen; members of the Southern Aristocracy, etc.
The scenes are laid in St. Louis between the years of 1850 and 1865; at Vicksburg, Mississippi, during the siege of Vicksburg; and in Washington, D. C., during Lincoln's administration (1861-1865).

Goebel Suffered Great Pain, Which Availd Him Nothing Toward Recovery

There are scores of residents of Erie who are familiar with the condition of Louis Goebel, the well known carpenter and all have sympathized sincerely with him in his sufferings. Mr. Goebel exhibited an ugly cross-like scar on the outer surface of his abdomen. "That is what the surgeons did for me. I was in the hospital for three months. They thought I had gall stones in my bladder, and I was told that the inflammation substances had overflowed to my stomach. "They operated on me. Yes sir, cut me open, and after all of that suffering I had no results from the operation. "I have been unable to work for a long time. Nearly everybody who knows me knows that I am telling the gospel truth. Yessir, this Tanlac has done what the knife couldn't do for me. I have used one single bottle of Tanlac and I feel like a new man. I am improving every day, getting my strength back. I expect to continue taking Tanlac and I'm going back to work soon. This Tanlac has done more for me than everything else combined, and I have taken, I guess, barrels of medicine. It's certainly like a miracle." Tanlac is now sold here by Woodward & McPherson.

NOTICE

Milk is our best and cheapest food product. The continuous increase in price of all supplies, labor, upkeep of rigs, machinery, etc., loss of bottles and accounts, necessitates a radical change in retailing or a higher price for milk.

The milk dealers of this city serve about 1500 families daily. Some patrons pay cash. Some buy tickets, others have charge accounts. These methods creates an endless onerous job for the dealer to check the drivers and save disputes with customers, aside from the anxiety and worry of losing many accounts.

Our business is made up of small items like 5 and 10 cent store, which avoids credit accounting, delivering and loan of baskets to carry purchases home. We believe if we only eliminate credit and accounting, it will be possible to continue our service as heretofore without an advance in price.

Knowing our patrons will appreciate our effort to keep prices at the lowest notch beginning May 1, 1917 all milk will be cash as follows:

Milk, per quart 9c. Milk per pint 5c.
Cream per quart 32c.
$1.00 will buy 11 1-2 quart milk tickets or 13 half pint cream.

"Satisfy"— what's that?

A NEW cigarette word— "Satisfy!"

It means something more than merely pleasing the taste—it means letting you know you are smoking! It means hitting the smoke-spot just right. That's what Chesterfields do—and still they're mild!

Yes, Chesterfields are mild! But, in addition, they give you more real, solid smoke—feeling per puff than any other cigarette you ever lighted.

It's the new blend of pure, natural Imported and Domestic tobaccos—that's what does it. And remember, this blend can't be copied.

Try Chesterfields and learn what "Satisfy" means. Today.

"THE CRISIS"

Portrayed by a human Abraham Lincoln—it's America's greatest American story. Special operatic music based on patriotic and romantic themes—the romance of war overtops its red horror.

"The Crisis" Will Fascinate and Thrill you Because

It portrays a human Lincoln. Heretofore, the Lincoln of both the spoken drama and the newer and broader drama of the screen have been mere historical figureheads. Says Thomas A. Edison: "In 'The Crisis' we have the titanic figure of Lincoln, his actions, his characteristics preserved for posterity in moving pictures in a manner so true to life that it recalls to my mind the great emancipator as I knew him."

A delicate and beautiful romance involving north and south in the border city of St. Louis, is told. The play follows closely the novel, which has had a great popular success, and has now taken its place among the classics of American fiction.

The Slave Market of old St. Louis is reproduced with an auction sale of human chattels in progress.

Lincoln and Douglas debate the fiery question that finally set the Country in a blaze of Civil War: "Can the people of the United States territory, in any lawful way against the wish of any citizen of the United States, exclude slavery from its limits prior to the formation of a state constitution."

Fort Sumter is bombarded, and the American flag falls for the first time before the hostile fire of an internal enemy.

A nation rushes to arms at the call of a raw-boned humorist, who is destined to become the sublime man of sorrows.

The battle of Vicksburg is fought in detail, with its flotilla of crude river gunboats bombarding the forts on the bluffs, and its Blue and Gray coated land armies engaged in a grim hand to hand death struggle.

Yet, through the play, the romance of war overtops its red horror, and for the first time north and south can sit together in the theatre and see their respective causes impartially set forth and sympathetically portrayed.

STEWART'S DRUG STORE

ON THE SCREEN

Parties from Clearfield who viewed the great film "The Crisis" advise me that they paid $1 for gallery seats in the great theatres of Pittsburgh and that down stairs seats could not be had for $2. They also say that the picture is more than is claimed for it and that it is one of the most intensely patriotic plays that was ever filmed. The immortal Lincoln is shown in several scenes and the scenes from the battle of Vicksburg is such as will bring a thrill to everyone present. The story is too long to recite here. It really cannot be told—it must be seen to be appreciated. In these days of intensely patriotic feelings the big show "The Crisis" can do no other than make you glad you live under the Stars and Stripes and cause you to enjoy and glorify the love of your great country. This big feature will be here tomorrow. Don't miss it. I will guarantee it to be worth the money.

Toneline Is Beauty Aid, Announces Specialist
Mildred Louise Talk of Interest To Women

As health is a first aid to beauty this story told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than toneline," said Mildred Louise. "I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches and dizziness were my constant companions. Relief came however, when I took the advice of several women who said, 'Take toneline.'"

"Not long after I started the toneline treatment, my jactura began to remove me of the discomfort in my condition. And because head is the quickest way to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face."

"What toneline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to give it to many more women."

Toneline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies—stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the blood, and quickly restores proper action. Toneline is being applied daily to many people at Woodward & Lothrop's.

Notice: As toneline is a wonderful flesh builder, it should not be taken by any one not wanting to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many persons are recovered from those who have been benefited by toneline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous disorders, it is not a general stimulant, etc.

5,000,000 Corns Lift Right Off!

Try 2 Drops of Magic "Gets-It". There's a wonderful difference between getting rid of a corn now and the way they used to try to get rid of it only four or five years ago. "Gets-It" has revolutionized corn history. It's the only corn remedy today that acts on the new principle not only of shriveling up the corn, but of loosening the corn off—so loose that you can lift it right off with your fingers. Put 2 drops of "Gets-It" on that corn or callus tonight. That's all. The corn is doomed sure as sunrise. No pain, or trouble, or soreness. You do away once and for all with toe-bundling bandages, toe-eating salves and irresponsible what-nots. Try it—get surprised and lose a corn.

"See? Just 2 Drops of 'Gets-It' Now Tomorrow You'll Just Feel That Corn Right Off—and It's Gone!"

"Gets-It" is sold everywhere. 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in Clearfield and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by C. W. Dooley, Irwin Drug Co., and Woodward & McPherson.

Eton Boys Of England Will Get
An Unnecessary Vacation

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
London, April 24.—The English public school boys are doing their little for England today.

Eton and Harrow, England's two great public schools, have given up "tuck shops" and creases until after the war.

The boys of Harrow decided on their own initiative not to buy any more putty or candy at the tuck shops and not to have their trousers pressed while the war lasts. The boys at Eton had measures similarly restricting their gastronomies and their nether garments thrust upon them.

Bread, meat and sugar, the A B C's of the food controller's thou shalt nots are included in the sweeping ordinance the youngsters of Harrow imposed upon themselves. They have agreed not to buy any article of food containing these three substances except during the regular hours for meals, and then to stay within the suggested limits each week. As for their tailors they're going to cut them out after the war.

The good old "under the mattress" hiding place will have to do the trick to keep the young Harrowians from looking as though they were ready to jump.

The Eton boys neglected to adopt similar measures in time and the teachers did it for them. Besides imposing strict regulations for young Etonians' flogging the faculty has

Fourth Ward Murderer
May Not Be SuicideBartoli Aveni Expected to Recover
From His Wounds

Bartoli Aveni, the demented Italian who attempted suicide by shooting himself in the head after killing his cousin, Sam Cadile, in the East End yesterday at noon, passed a fairly comfortable night at the Clearfield hospital and appears to be getting along alright today.

The bullet which Aveni shot into his head entered under the chin and tore through his mouth, knocking out several teeth and passing up back of the nose lodged near the left eye. The wound is not necessarily fatal unless complications arise.

County Coroner Dr. J. I. Pollum, of DuBois, arrived in town yesterday afternoon and empaneled a jury consisting of: T. A. Kramer, G. J. Johnson, Sam Toney, J. R. Chase, W. J. Leavy and John Eadie.

They repaired to the scene of the shooting and after examining the remains returned a verdict in accordance with the facts surrounding the shooting.

Following the inquest Cadile's body was removed to Leavy's undertaking establishment and prepared for burial. It was found that the bullet after entering the body had taken a downward course, which would tend to show that the murderer was above his victim when the fatal shot was fired, which would also indicate that the man was shot while coming up the stairs. The dead man's nose and jaw were broken, his forehead badly cut and the blood spots in the bed room and at the head of the stairs also give rise to the belief that the shooting was done upstairs and that the murderer also beat up his victim after shooting him.

Cadile's funeral will be held from the Catholic church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, with interment in Calvary cemetery.

ACCIDENT VICTIM IMPROVING

Little Joe Natore, the East End lad who was struck by the automobile in which District Attorney Welch was being driven to the scene of yesterday's shooting affray, was very little worse for wear this morning, although his bruised side and hip were pretty sore.

Little Natore owes his life to his presence of mind in grasping the bumper of the machine when it struck him, and hanging on like grim death. The accident was unavoidable as the little fellow rushed out from behind a coal wagon right in front of the oncoming machine, and had he failed to hang on when struck would undoubtedly have been killed, as Mr. Welch's driver never saw the boy until he stepped right in front of the machine.

John E. Jannot, of Meadville, Mrs. J. D. Rollin, of Cleveland, Ohio and Mrs. J. C. Daugherty of Turpike avenue, have been called to Surveyor on account of the serious illness of their sister, Mrs. Annie Rougeaux.

Mrs. William S. Heinen, Nee Alice Norris, Home Talent Star at Milton

The following highly complimentary notice of a former talented young woman of Clearfield, Mrs. William S. Heinen, nee Alice Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Norris of South Second street, we take from one of our exchanges. "The Milton Evening Standard." Mrs. Heinen is a vocalist of more than ordinary ability and her host of Clearfield friends will be pleased to read of her success at her home in Milton. The extract follows:

"Ballad," a comic operetta produced by the Fortnightly Guild, made its initial appearance at the Family theatre Thursday, and was one of the best home talent plays ever given in this city. From the beginning to the end everything went along smoothly and every one of the several hundred people who witnessed it was surprised at the ease with which all the principals and chorus went through their parts.

Another crowded house again witnessed the play last night.

Mrs. William S. Heinen as Ballad, the princess, won the hearts of the audience from the moment she stepped on the stage and in many of the love scenes, she made a very pretty appearance. Her solos were exceptionally fine, especially "Love is a Flower" and the Ballad, "Crown, Silver Moon" which brought several encores. In her duet with Walter Evans of Sanbury, who took the part of the prince-lover, the audience was delighted with the sweet blending of their voices and these also brought forth great applause from everyone."

BRITONS TO OBSERVE "ANZAC DAY"

London, April 24.—"Anzac Day" commemorating the anniversary of the landing of the Australians and New Zealand army corps on Gallipoli peninsula for the unsuccessful attempt to capture the Dardanelles, is to be celebrated tomorrow in every nook and corner of the British empire. In London the official celebration is to take the form of a special service at Westminster Abbey, to be attended by the King and Queen, high officials of the government and representatives of the army and navy.

Dispatches from Canada and South Africa indicate that the day will be celebrated generally by memorial and patriotic services. In Australia and New Zealand the day has been officially designated as a special day of mourning.

It is expected that in the parts of the empire "Anzac Day" will be a day of mourning throughout the British empire, on the day of the anniversary of the landing of the British and Commonwealth troops on Gallipoli.

Mrs. David Campbell, of Clearfield, is spending the day at the home of Lee R. Watson.

Old Time Lumberman
Visiting Clearfield

James Wesley Childs, a Clearfielder in 1818, Visiting Friends

James Wesley Childs, of Waverly, N. Y., arrived in town last evening for a visit with relatives for a few days. There would not be anything remarkable in the above statement were it not for the fact that the venerable gentleman mentioned has started in on the 88th lap of his life's journey.

Mr. Childs is a former Clearfield resident, coming here in 1848 from his home in Ticonderoga, New York. He was one of the pioneer lumbermen of this section and remained here for a number of years. He was acquainted with all the old timers and in a short conversation with The Progress man recalled many of the familiar names of before the war times.

Mr. Childs married Miss Elizabeth Irwin, sister of Mrs. E. C. Johnson, and R. E. Irwin of this place, in 1854 and took his bride to his old home on a honeymoon trip, making the entire journey overland by stage, traveling by way of Tyrone, Bellefonte, Lock Haven and Williamsport. Mr. Childs is hale and hearty for a man of his years and no more feared the rigorous journey from his home to Clearfield than he did the stage coach journey of more than three score years ago. He expects to meet the few old friends yet remaining during his stay here.

BIG BUSINESS MEN IN FAVOR

If the action of the Democratic caucus meeting war prohibition threw the liquor interests into consternation, as the report goes, it also brought to the prohibition ranks a large number of prominent and influential men who are in favor of the dry policy during the war on strictly business and economic grounds.

"I am firmly convinced," said F. A. Vanderlip of the National City Bank, New York, "that a national prohibition measure would be of transcendent importance in its effect upon national spirit, conserving and increasing our food supply, releasing labor for other productive channels when the need is acute. The plants could be quickly turned to industrial uses for which the need is so pressing."

Howard Elliott, president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad said, "Prohibition during the war would help meet the food crisis, promote health and efficiency, and economy would be very great."

David R. Forgan, president of the National City Bank of Chicago, "Prohibition during the war would help meet the food crisis, promote health and efficiency, and economy would be very great."

Governor Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania: "Absolute for war prohibition. Conditions demand it."

Governor Alexander of Idaho: "Experience demonstrates prohibition one of the greatest economic measures. Am very much for it."

Governor Bilbo of Mississippi: "The crisis of war demands every man at his best. I am for national war prohibition."

Governor Capper of Kansas: "Prohibition demands it."

Governor Harris of Georgia, has called a conference of all governors to meet in the city of Washington May 4th to consider what action the states should take to meet the food crisis, and fortify for the strain that war will impose on all their resources.

GUARDS KEPT BUSY

The job of guarding that R. R. & P. railroad bridge below town is getting to be rather a strenuous operation, judging from the tales emanating from that vicinity. The night crew appears to have a big time driving marauders away from the bridge while it appears that the day men have a big time to keep from being driven away themselves.

Last evening E. T. Pooler, one of the day guards, made information before Squire Milligan in which he asserts that a West Side citizen with whom he had a discussion on the bridge met him on the street and swatted him in the eye. The young man will be asked to defend himself in an assault and battery case.

ALABAMA SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS

Montgomery, Ala., April 24.—An army of earnest young religious workers rallied here today for the opening of the thirty-fourth annual convention of the Alabama Sunday school association. In attendance and enthusiasm the convention this year bids fair to eclipse all of its predecessors. A leading feature of the three-day session will be a course of lectures by E. E. French of Nashville, president of the Tennessee Sunday school association and superintendent of the department of Sunday school supplies of the Methodist Episcopal church, south. The musical portions of the program will be charged by Prof. E. O. Howell of Louisville.

Shows The Proper
American SpiritH. B. Swoope, Modern Coal Man, Will Assist The Government

H. B. Swoope, of Madera, with extensive coal interests in that vicinity, and who also operates the Monarch shaft, near Philipsburg, gives evidence of a true spirit of patriotism by the following announcement which appeared in the Madera Hustler of April 20th:

ANNOUNCEMENT

Our Government, representing the majority, has decided at this important time to throw our moral, financial, military and naval strength on the side they evidently think will mean for the betterment of the world and a lasting peace.

I have written the Navy Department, offering a cargo of coal from my Mines each month.

I wish to announce that any of my employees coming within the age limits fixed or to be fixed, who may feel it their duty to enlist for active service, hereby have my promise:

First. That they shall have a return as good a job at least as they left.

Second. That if any dependant they may leave shall need help while they are absent, I will personally see that they get it, or if the age limits and requirements are changed and I am needed later myself I will arrange accordingly.

Our country is the best on the face of the earth, and the right of the principle of our FLAG stands for a successful republic. As of differences of opinion as to details or policies, there is but one course open to us all when it comes to a question of whether we shall stand for our Country or whether we shall not. That course is "STAND!"

H. B. SWOOPE.

April 10, 1917.

While it is true that all cannot carry out such a proposition as is made by Mr. Swoope, yet his example can be emulated by the humblest citizen in some measure at least. Mr. Swoope is to be commended for his pure and swerving patriotic spirit.

BISHOP LAWRENCE HONORED

Boston, Mass., April 24.—Leaders of the Episcopal church from all parts of New England attended a reception given at the Copley-Plaza hotel this afternoon in honor of Bishop Lawrence and in recognition of his work in creating the $5,000,000 pension fund for Episcopal clergy. The reception followed an impressive thanksgiving service in Trinity church.

GERMAN ASSAULTS REPULSED

(By United Press.)
Paris, April 24.—General Neville's troops are holding the position wrested from the enemy in last week's great offensive movement designed to German counter attacks, the official statement declared today detailing a number of German assaults all of which were repulsed.

London, April 24.—Sumarra station was captured from the Turks by the British forces early yesterday. The capture included 16 locomotives, 224 railroad wagons, and two barges containing munitions. The enemy casualties were heavy. Sumarra is 65 miles northwest of Baghdad and is situated on the Tigris river.

London, April 24.—General Haig's forces gained more ground in the second British offensive. "We made further progress east of Monchy le Preux and Rœux and to the north of Baupreux. Chamberlain. We gained ground on a wide front east of Epuy and St. Quentin channel.

"The war was severe fighting at intervals during the night," Haig's report declared. "The villages of Coudun and Gouville were taken. The enemy counter attacks were unsuccessful. Positions gained yesterday were maintained. Fifteen thousand prisoners including 30 officers were taken and many more are being taken today."

Lord Cunliffe, Our Noted Guest,
Little Known Outside London

London, April 24.—In the City of London he is known as "The Kitchen of Finance." Outside the city, Lord Cunliffe is now in his sixty-fourth year. Son of a hard-headed Manchester business man who left a fortune of several million dollars, he spent the days of his boyhood and youth at "Larrow and Cumborough" where he distinguished himself both in war and play alike. He has, in fact, always been a very keen athlete and sportsman, his great passion of late years being the fishing and big-game shooting. In the pursuit of this sport he has covered the wilds of both India and China.

After leaving college he entered upon his business career as a member of the "workhouse firm of Cunliffe, Threlkeld and Street." Before he was thirty the City of London knew him as a keen expert in business and finance. In 1895 he was made a director of the Bank of England. He became a Deputy Governor in 1911 and is now serving his fourth term as the supreme head of the great institution. Lord Cunliffe is easily distinguished by reason of his great stature. He is six feet high and very broad, with a fairish moustache and his favorite frock coat and silk hat. For a man of his years, he is remarkably active and young.

"Work is the best of all hobbies," is one of his favorite maxims, and he is to be found at his office at the Bank of England nearly every day of the week.

Gasoline is a most expensive line.

Shall we use our grain for booze or bread?

Autoists must not take too much pleasure out of the announcement that the Standard Oil company is to be prosecuted for cornering the gasoline market and forcing up prices to the present level. News dispatches say that all the evidence is to be handed over to the Attorney General but whether he will put them in his hip pocket and forget them remains to be seen. Newspaper men were overjoyed when a commission said what they were going to do to the high cost of print paper but so far newspaper men have seen no relief.

THE GLEANERS

With every era of prosperity there comes the hordes of stock promoters and those who seek to set the world afire on their proposition with your money and my money. All we suckers remember how we bit on blue sky proposals during a period of prosperity about the time of the Spanish War. And again we have memories of another period of prosperity in 1905 when a glib salesman could sell anything that looked like a stock certificate. We are going through the same period again and corpulent, prosperous looking gentlemen are keeping printing offices busy turning out the fancy looking, embossed certificates that are so familiar to all of us. This is fishing season in more than one sense of the word. A pointed hook is encased in the choicest of bait.

THIS COUNTY SLIGHTED

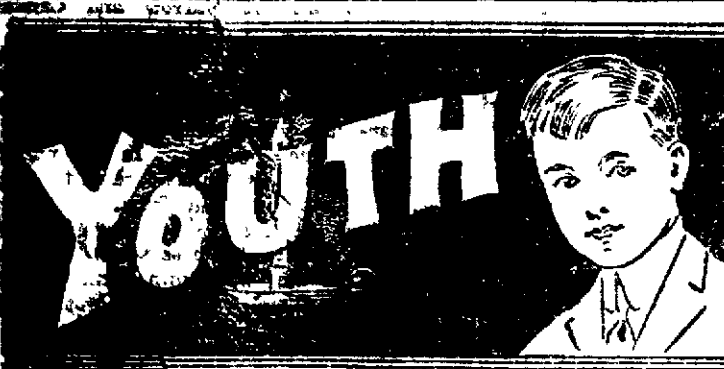

Clearfield Countians have looked in vain for some representation on the State Committee on Public Safety. Thus far of the more than three hundred members appointed on the committee only one has been from this county and in the person of George A. Lakehart, who though capable and able to serve cannot be said to represent the county at large because his residence is at DuBois which is on the outskirts of the county. Smaller counties in the Commonwealth have been given better representation and every one is at loss to know why the Governor has not seen fit to honor at least one of the big men of the city of Clearfield. Some are frank in their belief that it is political, because the Governor did not carry Clearfield county, but we are loath to believe that politics are to be injected in a matter of so great import and we would rather take the view that the Governor has simply overlooked the matter of giving this county their proper representation and that in the near future we will be better represented on this all important committee. The city of Clearfield has many citizens whose abilities fit them to serve their commonwealth in this capacity and representatives of our great brick making and coal industries should not receive this treatment even at the hands of our Chief Executive.

Silas Whipple..... Mr. George Fawcett
Known as Judge Whipple. A disciple of Lincoln and a bitter foe of the system of slavery—the bartering of human souls, as tho' they were cattle.
Comyn Carvel..... Mr. Matthew Snyder
Known as Colonel Carvel. A heart as big as all outdoors, but none the less convinced that the Lord created some to rule, others to serve.
Known as "Jimmy." As fair a rose of Dixie Land as man e'er set eyes upon; and as proud, loyal and brave as she is fair.
Stephen Brice..... Mr. Thomas Santschi
Of New England. Firm of Puritan purpose, unafraid of his convictions, generous, tolerant and respected of all men.
Mrs. Brice..... Miss Eugenia Bresser
Mother of Stephen Brice. Sorrow had sweetened her; adversity had strengthened her; and the two had left upon her face an appearance of indescribable saintliness.
Clarence Colfax..... Mr. Marshall Neilan
Nephew to Colonel Carvel, and cousin to Virginia, with whom he is very much in love. A beloved vagabond in the practical affairs of life, but none the less chivalrous and brave.
Lige Brent..... Mr. Frank Weed
Known as "the Mole." Poverty had hardened him; Hunger had made him so unscrupulous that he bit the hand that fed him.
A steamboat captain. Master of a type of mighty craft that plowed the Mississippi a half century ago.
Abraham Lincoln..... Mr. Samuel Drane
A man of sorrow, likewise a man of infinite humor. In his expressive eyes were mirrored the Soul of a War-Torn Nation.
Major-General in the Armies of the United States. A restless spirit that never gave up. His motto was "War is Hell."
Union and Confederate officers and soldiers; slaves, militiamen and artillerymen; northern and southern statesmen; members of the Southern Aristocracy, etc.
The scenes are laid in St. Louis between the years of 1850 and 1865; at Vicksburg, Mississippi, during the siege of Vicksburg; and in Washington, D. C., during Lincoln's administration (1861-1865).
ACT I—"This Government Cannot Exist Half Slave and Half Free."
ACT II—"I have not suffered by the South. I have suffered WITH the South. Their sorrow has been my sorrow; their pain has been my pain."

SURGEON'S KNIFE LEFT BAD SCAR CURWENSVILLE

Goebel Suffered Great Pain, Which Availd Him Nothing Toward Recovery

There are scores of residents of Erie who are familiar with the condition of Louis Goebel, the well known carpenter and all have sympathized sincerely with him in his sufferings.

Mr. Goebel exhibited an ugly cross-like scar on the outer surface of his abdomen.

"That is what the surgeons did for me. I was in the hospital for three months. They thought I had gall stones in my bladder, and I was told that the inflammation substances had overflowed to my stomach.

"They operated on me. Yes sir, cut me open, and after all of that suffering I had no results from the operation.

"I have been unable to work for a long time. Nearly everybody who knows me knows that I am telling the gospel truth. Yessir, this Tanlac has done what the knife couldn't do for me. I have used one single bottle of Tanlac and I feel like a new man. I am improving every day, getting my strength back. I expect to continue taking Tanlac and I'm going back to work soon. This Tanlac has done more for me than everything else combined, and I have taken, I guess, barrels of medicine. It's certainly like a miracle."

Tanlac is now sold here by Woodward & McPherson.

"Satisfy"—what's that?

A NEW cigarette word—"Satisfy!"

It means something more than merely pleasing the taste—it means letting you know you are smoking! It means hitting the smoke-spot just right. That's what Chesterfields do—and still they're mild!

Yes, Chesterfields are mild! But, in addition, they give you more real, solid smoke—feeling per puff than any other cigarette you ever lighted.

Try Chesterfields and learn what "Satisfy" means. Today.

"THE CRISIS"

Portrayed by a human Abraham Lincoln—it's America's greatest American story. Special operatic music based on patriotic and romantic themes—the romance of war overtops its red horror.

"The Crisis" Will Fascinate and Thrill you Because

It portrays a human Lincoln. Heretofore, the Lincoln of both the spoken drama and the newer and broader drama of the screen have been mere historical figureheads. Says Thomas A. Edison: "In 'The Crisis' we have the titanic figure of Lincoln, his actions, his characteristics preserved for posterity in moving pictures in a manner so true to life that it recalls to my mind the great emancipator as I knew him."

A delicate and beautiful romance involving north and south in the border city of St. Louis, is told. The play follows closely the novel, which has had a great popular success, and has now taken its place among the classics of American fiction.

The Slave Market of old St. Louis is reproduced with an auction sale of human chattels in progress.

Lincoln and Douglas debate the fiery question that finally set the Country in a blaze of Civil War: "Can the people of the United States territory, in any lawful way against the wish of any citizen of the United States, exclude slavery from its limits prior to the formation of a state constitution."

Fort Sumter is bombarded, and the American flag falls for the first time before the hostile fire of an internal enemy.

A nation rushes to arms at the call of a raw-boned humorist, who is destined to become the sublime man of sorrows.

The battle of Vicksburg is fought in detail, with its flotilla of crude river gunboats bombarding the forts on the bluffs, and its Blue and Gray coated land armies engaged in a grim hand to hand death struggle.

Yet, through the play, the romance of war overtops its red horror, and for the first time north and south can sit together in the theatre and see their respective causes impartially set forth and sympathetically portrayed.

STEWART'S DRUG STORE

ON THE SCREEN

Parties from Clearfield who viewed the great film "The Crisis" advise me that they paid $1 for gallery seats in the great theatres of Pittsburgh and that down stairs seats could not be had for $2. They also say that the picture is more than is claimed for it and that it is one of the most intensely patriotic plays that was ever filmed. The immortal Lincoln is shown in several scenes and the scenes from the battle of Vicksburg is such as will bring a thrill to everyone present. The story is too long to recite here. It really cannot be told—it must be seen to be appreciated. In these days of intensely patriotic doings the big show "The Crisis" can do no other than make you glad you live under the Stars and Stripes and cause you to enjoy and glorify the love of your great country. This big feature will be here tomorrow. Don't miss it. I will guarantee it to be worth the money.

Toneline Is Beauty Aid, Announces Specialist

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest To Women

As health is a first aid to beauty this story told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist of Boston, Mass., is of unusual interest.

"I can recommend no better health giver than toneline," said Mildred Louise. "I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches and dizziness were my constant companions. Relief came however, when I took the advice of several women who said, 'Take toneline.'"

"Not long after I started the toneline treatment, my jactations began to subside. I was no longer a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness. I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches and dizziness were my constant companions. Relief came however, when I took the advice of several women who said, 'Take toneline.'"

"What toneline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to give it to many more women. Toneline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies—stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the blood and quickly restores proper action. Toneline is being applied daily to many people at Woodward & Lothrop's."

Notice: As toneline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wanting to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many persons are recovered from those who have been benefited by toneline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervousness, it is not a general tonic, etc.

5,000,000 Corns Lift Right Off!

Try 2 Drops of Magic "Gets-It".

There's a wonderful difference between getting rid of a corn now and the way they used to try to get rid of it only four or five years ago. "Gets-It" has revolutionized corn history. It's the only corn remedy today that acts on the new principle not only of shriveling up the corn, but of loosening the corn off—so loose that you can lift it right off with your fingers. Put 2 drops of "Gets-It" on that corn or callus tonight. That's all. The corn is doomed sure as sunrise. No pain, or trouble, or soreness. You do away once and for all with toe-bundling bandages, toe-eating salves and irresponsible what-nots. Try it—get surprised and lose a corn.

"Gets-It" is sold everywhere. 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.
